

The Rhinohide Song

TTTO: If I Only Had a Brain

Lyrics by Ciann the Minstrel

When a man's dressed like a kettle, he should be on his mettle.

He should be full of pride.

And yet how am I to feel when my foes mistake my zeal

And say I'm a rhino-hide.

When I'm on a tourney field, you'll never see me yield.

I will not be denied.

Yet they bitch about each fight, 'cause I always holler "light."

They say I'm a rhino-hide.

Headed for Estrella War, to help out those in need

I'm fighting for Caid, I'll never die, don't even try

Other fighters round the nation tried to teach me calibration,

When with them I have vied.

Though they try to knock some sense out, later I just pound the dents out,

Because I'm a rhino-hide.
